

THE SENDING CHURCH LEADERSHIP TEAM 1st Quarterly Meeting

1. Be mindful of someone's relationship status.
2. Do not text or call someone after 9pm.
3. If all you are doing is communicating through text messaging, then you are not communicating well.
4. Ask people first if it's ok to put them in a group chat.
5. When you schedule a meeting, ask yourself is the time convenient for the majority, or just yourself?
6. Remember the three most prominent means to meet are in-person, conference call or Zoom. What is most convenient for the majority?
7. Should your meetings or event be weekly, bi-weekly, monthly, quarterly, or yearly?
8. Keep in consideration that people already have busy lives. Furthermore, we already meet twice a week as a church.
9. Be mindful that we have an online community.
10. Before every meeting PRAY. (Scripture and prayer are both appropriate.)
11. Establish what the purpose of the ministry is. (Names help to reveal purpose.)
12. Whatever you plan, ask:
 - a) Does this glorify God?
 - b) How does this help fulfill the purpose of this ministry?
 - c) How does this bless others?

THE SENDING CHURCH LEADERSHIP TEAM 1st Quarterly Meeting

- d) Will this have the WOW factor?
 - e) Do we believe this plan carries the spirit and heart of our Pastor?
13. If the Pastor says no regarding an idea, an event etc., don't get offended. If someone on your team/ministry doesn't fully agree with your idea, don't get offended.
 14. Pastor does not need to know everything and handle everything. That's why you are there. The Pastor only needs to know what you need help with and what your plan is.
 15. Stay in your lane.
 16. Remember, we are a new ministry. We can't do everything. We have to grow into things as the years come.
 17. Be respectful.
